TESTIMONIALS.

At the time I occupied the office of Commissioner, R. H. EDDY Esq., of Boston, did business as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There he had a very extensive acquaintance with the duties and practice before the Patent Office, and there was conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success than Mr. Eddy as one of the most successful and reliable Patent Solicitors in the United States, and I can with confidence recommend that they cannot secure more competent and trustworthy and reliable of putting their applications in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

From the present Commissioner of Patents.
Sept. 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents R. H. Eddy, Esq., has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, in a fiduciary capacity, and has conducted with the law and the rules and practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

BALTIMORE, Jan 8, 1856

Messrs C & J Marshall—Gentlemen At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper coated spikes, we, without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper

We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as first as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation

Very respectfully yours

The Great European Cough Remedy.

Important to the Consumptive and the Public generally The celebrated

Universal Cough Mixture

Is a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description, whether of children or adults of recent or long standing

PREPARED ONLY BY
REV. WALTER CLARKE,
Sole Proprietor, Cornishville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged, and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it speedily allays the irritable sensation in the throat which excites the cough, promotes free and easy expectoration, and thus removing the exciting cause of the cough, gently enables the sufferers to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of this blessing.

Sold in trial bottles, 25 cents each, large bottles, containing the quantity of four small ones, 75 cents each

Extract of a Letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Bowdoinham, Maine.

BOWDOINHAM, January 17th, 1853.

Rev. W. Clark Dear Sir—I send you a bottle of Cough Mixture which I bought of you at Topsham and has cured my wife! She had been afflicted with a severe cough for two years—that bottle entirely removed it.

From Rev. Jesse Hoyt Lewiston Falls

Dear Sir—Every bottle of the Universal Cough Mixture left with me I sold—and I have several more to sell. As far as heard from, all have been pleased with the medicine. One man, who had been standing attended with tightness of the chest and cough, so that he was laid aside from his work, bought one bottle, and before he had used it, was perfectly cured and has not been troubled since. He says it is the best medicine in the world.

JESSE HAYES.

From Rev. Fletcher Chuck, agent for North Dixmont, Maine.

DIXMONT, January 1, 1856

Rev. W. Clark Dear Sir—This certifies that I have been afflicted with a severe cough and settled cold in the lungs I had procured several bottles of medicine, and had been using several preparations, without obtaining the least relief, until I procured a bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture, which I used according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured

FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN,
...AND...
NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county, the above valuable invention, is now prepared to offer them to the public

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose, as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in traveling It is heated in an oil, alcohol, or fluid lamp, the flame of which is protected from every external object

As a LANTERN it answers all the usual purposes, and is less likely to be overset, or get broken, and can be used as a house lamp with equal advantage.

As a NURSE LAMP, and in cases of sickness it is of great advantage in keeping drinks or medicines warm beside giving the light desired, and for cooking in small quantities For making tea, &c., it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes, and a flat-iron heat in the same length of time

In fact, the various purposes to which this neat apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To say any thing more respecting its adaptability to a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers can all see at once for themselves

The Kansas Meeting.

A letter was received in the city last evening from Mr Dunn, stating that he should be unable to be in town this week. In consequence, the meeting which was adjourned to this evening will be postponed.

"The Union and the Constitution."

Our neighbors of the Bangor Journal who are bound firmly to the democratic "alliance," have a great deal to say about their devotion to the "Constitution and the Union." Unmeaning generalities on this point, constitute in fact, everything which we have been able to extract from that paper, in the form of a political creed. It will not even say whether it now stands by the Straight Whig platform of 1854 adopted by its own friends at Kendusk eag It is all for the "Constitution and the Union," but with a persistent determination not to commit itself as to the practical question of prohibiting slavery in the territories.

We will take it, however, on its own ground, and inquire how it can "persist in an "alliance" with the democratic party, whose leaders and members are constantly invading the most sacred rights guaranteed by the Constitution?

We ask it to consider some of these outrages upon constitutional rights. The Albany Journal sets them forth as follows

The Constitution guarantees "the liberty of Speech and of the Press." Within the past week two Printing Offices have been destroyed by cannonade, for exercising the one, and a Senator in Congress beaten down and mangled in his seat, for availing himself of the other.

The Constitution declares that "the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed" Within the present month persons acting under Federal authority have forcibly seized two hundred stand of arms, and a field-piece belonging to citizens of Kansas, and turning them upon their lawful owners, have driven them from their homes

There is a clause in the Constitution declaring that "no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law" The grass has hardly grown over the graves of Dow and Brown, the one shot and the other chopped to pieces by Federal permission, and Lawrence has been attacked and partly burned by Federal command.

We have no doubt the Journal will condemn the outrages, but will still stand by its "alliance" in the coming election, with the party through whose predominance these outrages have been brought to pass.

A Republican State Convention for Massachusetts was held on Wednesday at Worcester, to select delegates to the Philadelphia Convention A great concourse of people was present from all parts of the State, exhibiting much enthusiasm in the cause. Hon Charles Hudson was President of the Convention.

The following are among the resolutions

Resolved That the course of the present Administration with reference to the free State settlers in Kansas has resulted in a crime which, for its deliberate and persistent atrocity, is unsurpassed in the history of modern civilization that the attack upon the State of Massachusetts in the person of her Senator, the Hon Charles Sumner, is a sequence and part of that crime, and is only the foreshadowing of other and fearful results which are to flow from the unchecked and emboldened spirit of the Slave Power, acting through and by the general government

Resolved, That the administration of Franklin Pierce, by its subservience to the slave power, by its complaisancy with the outrages on Kansas and on Sumner, and by its general faithlessness to the principles of American freedom has justly incurred the abhorrence of every patriotic citizen, and fully manifested its incompetency for the functions of a Republican government

Resolved, That we cling with unabated attachment to the Union established in a spirit of amity by our forefathers and cemented by their blood, and that we will ever resist all hostility to the principles upon which it is founded coming from what quarter it may We love it, we cherish it, and will defend it against all foreign and domestic aggressions

FIRE At house on the continuation of Broadway, about half a mile from the city, occupied by Joseph Dearborn and Wm. Dickinson, was burned this morning about 3 o'clock. The fire took in the barn, and communicated with the house before it was discovered The families lost most of their clothing and a great part of their furniture. House not very valuable—owned by some one in Boston, we were told.

The house occupied by G F Talbot, Esq., of Machias, was damaged by fire last week, to the amount of about $200.

CAPTURE OF FAWNS. Mr John R Smith of this city, while fishing and hunting the other day in Dixmont, suddenly came upon two fawns—a male and female—which he made prisoners, and conveyed to a place of security. The mother was near by, and on hearing a cry of distress from her helpless offspring, soon came bounding to their rescue, and fearlessly attacked their captor, who repelled her repeated assaults with the butt of his gun She followed him to within about twenty rods of a human habitation, when the instincts of self-preservation overcame her maternal affection, and warned her to give up the pursuit. She reluctantly left her "dear" ones to their fate, and returned to her forest home to mourn over her loss. Mr. Smith disposed of the fawns to Mr. Cook of Dixmont.

Hon Henry Wilson arrived in Boston Monday The Journal says. "Many political opponents as well as friends, hastened to take him by the hand, and express their approval of his manly bearing during the recent trying scenes in Washington." At Natick, on Saturday evening, Gen Wilson was greeted upon his arrival by several hundred of his fellow citizens, and in response to a brief speech by B. F. Howe, Esq., said, that as a Senator of Massachusetts, he had branded the assault upon his friend and colleague as brutal, murderous and cowardly" He had been called to account for these words, but he had not retracted, and by the blessing of God, he never would retract or qualify them. His friends knew that he had at home professed devotion to liberty—at Washington he would live up to those professions at all hazards.

THE METHODISTS AND SLAVERY.—In the Methodist General Conference at Indianapolis there has been a long discussion of the slavery question. It came up in the shape of a proposition to amend the Discipline! The 'Discipline' as it stands forbids, buying and selling human beings. The proposition was to make it read 'buying, selling, and HOLDING human beings.' The resolution to amend was finally lost, by a vote taken on Thursday of last week, which stood as follows: Ayes 121, nays 94. There was a majority for the proposed amendment but two thirds of the votes are necessary to carry it. The General Conference represents the 'Methodist Episcopal Church North,' but extends South into some of the border slave States.

Gazetteer of New England.—History of Hampden.

Mr. J. B. Mansfield of this city has now in press and will soon publish a Gazetteer of the New England States, which, from an examination of some of the advance sheets, we have no doubt will be the most valuable work of the kind yet published. It gives a complete history of every town in New England, besides a description of townships not incorporated.

The work is a royal octavo of 1000 pages. There is a map of each one of the New England States, showing the locations of the towns, counties, mountains and courses of rivers and streams described in the work, besides a map of all the New England States on one sheet, showing all those great public works for which New England is so justly distinguished,—Railroads, Telegraph lines &c. All the Railroad stations are marked, and the names given, and the distance of one station from another by figures on the map. There are also 100 full engravings, views of cities, villages, landscapes &c. It will be sold only by subscription and at a very low price.

The work embraces a much more full account of the different towns and their local history than has ever been attempted before, and we hope to see the author well remunerated for the labor and money he has expended on it by a liberal subscription to his work.

We by permission copy the following from the advance sheets, as a specimen of the work.

HAMPDEN, Penobscot County, is the South-eastern frontier town of the county, on the North side of Penobscot River, between Frankfort and Bangor The township is six miles square and contains an area of 23,040 acres.—Benjamin Wheeler was the first settler; he came from Durham N. H, about the year 1767, and "pitched his tent" at what was known as the "Basin" at the mouth of the Souadabecook stream. Wheeler being a carpenter by trade soon erected mills at his settlement, from which the place took the name of Wheelersborough. For the first ten or fifteen years after the arrival of Wheeler, the progress of the settlement was very slow Disturbed by the English after their occupation of Sheepydecet, (now Castine) in 1779, the settlers retired with their families through the woods to Kennebec and from thence to Woodwich and Falmouth, (now Portland) Returning in 1783 they resumed the settlement of the place, and in 1796 the township was surveyed and platted by Ephraim Ballard, when every inhabitant received a lot of 100 acres. If he were a settler before January 1784 he paid six dollars, but if afterwards and before January 1794 he paid $60.—The residue of the town was assigned to Gen Knox, by the government, to make up for a deficiency in the Waldo Patent After the conclusion of peace, the settlement received large accessions from Cape Cod The town was incorporated Jan. 1794, though it appears from the records that the town acted as a municipal capacity as early as 1784. Its corporate name was adopted in memory of the famous Englishman, John Hampden. The Academy was incorporated in 1803, and has ever since been in successful operation

Gen John Crosby was one of the early settlers He came from Woolwich about 1775, and commenced as a farmer on the estate now occupied by Ivory Frost He afterwards entered largely into commercial business and carried on an extensive trade both with Europe and the East Indies. He died May 23th, 1843 at the advanced age of 88

Another prominent man among the early settlers was Col Gabriel Johonnot, a Frenchman by birth, a brave and distinguished officer in the American army during the Revolution — He was a friend and correspondent of General Washington, and during a long and active life exerted a great influence in the affairs of the town

Hon Martin Kinsley, Gen Jedediah Herrick, Enoch Brown and John Godfrey Esqrs., were early and prominent citizens of the town

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, now a Senator in Congress from this State, settled in the town as a lawyer about 1832

During the last war with England, Hampden suffered probably the most of any town in the State. The United States Corvette John Adams of 24 guns, Capt. Charles Morris homeward bound from a cruise, arrived off Penobscot Bay the last of August, 1814. There was a large British fleet in the vicinity under command of Rear Admiral Griffith On entering the Bay, the Adams struck a sunken rock, causing her to leak badly Capt Morris proceeded up the river to repair, and arrived at Hampden during the last week in August, and commenced dismantling his ship. The British Admiral learning the situation of the Adams, determined to take her. He immediately despatched two sloops of war, one brig and several transports, with 700 regulars, under command of Col Henry John of the 60th regiment. Capt Morris made every preparation for defending his ship He landed her guns and erected two batteries, one on the wharf, and another on a hill 200 yards below the wharf. The Militia had collected to the number of 600 under command of Gen Blake of Brewer, who took up his position on the ridge, (where now stands the house of James A. Smith,) for the purpose of opposing the advance of the enemy on the main road, as they had landed at Bald Hill Cove. Gen. Blake had taken no precaution to have breastworks thrown up for the protection of his troops, and had failed to make any arrangements by which a successful resistance might have been made. He did not even so much as post sergeants in the rear of his line to prevent the troops retreating. At daylight on the morning of Sept 3d, the British force were in motion on the road from Frankfort, when within 300 yards of Gen. Blake's position the English opened their fire and advanced with fixed bayonets in double quick time Our force being outflanked, immediately gave way, and made a precipitate retreat. The British troops pressed on to Capt. Morris's batteries, and as the men had no protection in the rear they were driven from their guns at the point of the bayonet.

Capt. Morris blew up his ship and with his men retreated to Bangor, thence to Portland — The English commander was greatly provoked at losing his prize, and for three days he permitted his sailors and marines with the land force, full liberty on shore. They committed the most wanton excesses in the plunder of the citizens and the destruction of property. The furniture in nearly all of the houses in the village was entirely destroyed, and the cattle and hogs belonging to the farmers were killed in their yards, even the sanctuary of the Most High did not escape their sacrilegious hands.—They entered the meeting house, tore the Bible and psalm book in pieces, then cut down the altar and the pews with their outknives.

This was a heavy blow to the inhabitants of Hampden Many that had been well off were now destitute. But this was not all— when the English force left they took about 80 of the citizens with them and carried them to Castine as prisoners of war. They were released in a short time on the promise of the selectmen of the town to pay one thousand dollars as a ransom. Pesos being concluded soon after, the ransom was never paid.

The inhabitants by their industrious habits in a few years recovered from the losses they had sustained, and have since continued prosperous and thriving. The surface of the town is somewhat rolling, but well adapted to agricultural purposes.

The principal stream and the only one of any note is the Souadabecook, running through the town from West to East, and affording water power for 18 saw mills, three paper mills and two grist mills. There are three natural ponds situated in the Northwest part of the town, called Great, Little and Georges ponds. Two villages both situated on the River-road, and about one mile apart, known as the Upper and Lower Corners, four Post Offices (viz) Hampden, Hampden Corner, West Hampden, and East Hampden The first meeting house was built by the town in 1796, and for thirty years was the only place of worship in the town, it is now standing and in good repair; for the last twenty years it has been used as a town house. There are now six Church organizations, and six Church edifices (viz) two Methodist, two Baptist, one Congregational and one Universalist 15 stores, 19 district schools and one Academy, the population in 1850 was 3,196. State valuation, $423,441.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION New Orleans, June 3 —At the election held in this city yesterday, the American candidate for Mayor was elected by over 2000 majority. With the exception of two assistant Aldermen, the entire American ticket was elected. In the first precinct, Mr. Trepanier, Clerk of the first District Court, and two other persons, were stabbed, and Mr Trepanier was shot several times by a band of Sicilians In the 11th precinct, 3 Sicilians were killed

There were several other fights in various parts of the city, shooting, stabbing, etc but without fatal termination.

ASSEMBLING OF THE N H LEGISLATURE.—Concord, N. H., June 4.—The New Hampshire Legislature assembled at the Capitol at 10 o'clock, this forenoon. In the Senate, Thos J Melvin of Chester was elected President, by a vote of 7 to 4, and George S Barton of Newport, and Calvin May, Jr, of Gilson, Clerk, all American Republicans In the House, Edward H Rollins of Concord, Republican, was elected Speaker receiving 162 votes, Samuel Herbert of Rumney, Democrat, 147, all others 3 John H. Goodale of Manchester, and Henry O Kent of Lancaster, were chosen Clerks There being no choice of Governor by the people, probabilities are that Metcalf will be elected in joint convention to-morrow.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the shower, on the evening of the 24th ult, the dwelling house of Capt. Wilmot Wass, of Harrington, was struck by lightning, and shattered so badly that it is thought it will have to be torn down and built anew Every room in the house shows its terrible effects, and fire was kindled in several places There were six persons in the house, though no one was harmed in the least In one of the sleeping rooms, the fluid entered, completely dissecting a toilet table, dashing on to an occupied bed without injury to the occupants.—Machias Union.

COMMERCIAL INTEGRITY. There is a wide scope to the inspired truth, that "righteousness exalteth a nation" Whether understood in the broad sense that national prosperity is dependent, under God, on the measure of living piety or in the more restricted of uprightness of character and dealing as the true foundation of private and public weal, the principle is a vital one, and it embodies the great secret of honorable success for individuals and communities.

We have special need, as a people, to study and apply this principle. As a commercial nation, with an internal traffic as varied and extensive as the diversified products and wants of twenty five millions of people, and external connections reaching to nearly every port and tribe in the wide world, the inspired lessons of commercial integrity ought to be familiar to our merchants and tradesmen, and to the young men who are in training for those honorable occupations It should be inscribed on the door of every counting-room, and blaze from the page of every ledger, "Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right." "Honesty is the best policy."

The temptations to swerve from the path of strict rectitude in business affairs are many and great in a country presenting so many avenues to enterprise, and with such multiplied instances of rapid accumulation by speculative action But the rule that "he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent," and ordinarily will fail of success, or his very success will prove his ruin The intoxication of wealth is as real and perilous as that of the bottle; and there are few who can withstand the temptations to pride, avarice and even dishonesty, which come in the train of sudden affluence.—Amer. Messenger.

A RELIGIOUS MURDERER.—A late narrative of travels in Russia contains the following illustration of religious fervor in that country —A lady on leaving a party in St. Petersburg at a rather advanced hour in the morning, called a droshkie, and having given direct ons to the driver, the latter proceeded toward her home, as she thought, instead of which he drove her to a rather deserted part of the city, when he suddenly turned round and cut her throat, the sable-lined cloak in which she was enveloped having excited his cupidity Having divested her of this, he dragged the body to the brink of the canal and threw her into it. He then folded up the cloak and laid it on the seat. On his way back to the stand he was hailed by a gendeman, and, however reluctant, obliged to take him as a fare. The gentleman not only noticed the cloak, but touching it, found his fingers stained with blood. He said nothing till he reached a police station, where, having ordered the driver to stop, he gave him into custody on suspicion The gentleman happened to be the husband of the lady, and by the light recognized the cloak as belonging to his wife The tragedy happened during Lent, when meat is forbidden. The man confessed the crime The murdered lady had a little basket with her which contained a pie. Having been asked by the commissary why he had not eaten the pie, "How could I think of eating the pie?" replied the assassin, "it may contain meat, and"—devoutly crossing himself—"I am, thank God, a good Christian!"

BAD MISTAKE. The New York Mirror says "A gentleman was going out in a carriage to make some calls with his wife, when, discovering that he had left his visiting cards, he decided his footman recently come into service, to go to the mantel-piece in his sitting room, and bring the cards he should see there: The servant did as he was ordered, returned the visites to be used as he was directed, and off started the gentleman, sending in the footman with cards wherever the "not at home" occurred. As those were very numerous, he turned to the servant with the question—"How many cards have you left?" "Well, sir," says the footman, very innocently, "there is the king of spades, the six of hearts, and the ace of clubs." "The deuce," exclaimed his master. "That's gone," said John.

DEATH OF A BUCCANEER. One of the men of the celebrated freebooter Lafitte, named James Campbell died at Virginia Point, Texas, on the 5th ult, in the 70th year of his age. The Galveston Civilian says that Campbell was in the navy in 1812, attached to the frigate Constitution, and participated in her brilliant engagement with the Guerriere. He afterwards joined Lafitte, and was his favorite lieutenant.—Campbell always spoke of Lafitte as sailing under letters of marque, saying that he was a highly honorable man and a fearless privateer, and unhesitatingly denied the imputation that he was a pirate Of late years Campbell had led a quiet, peaceful life, and was a good citizen. He was the last of Lafitte's men upon Galveston Bay.

FALL RIVER, Feb 5

This is to certify that I have been troubled for the last six years with humors, which broke out on my head, breast, and limbs, forming a complete sore, attended with s vere pain, equal to biles, and have made use of many different medicines during the time, receiving no benefit from any, but for the last six months have been growing worse, and had given up all hopes of ever being any better, but fortunately about one month ago I was indticed to make a trial of the Allsed Ointment, which applied to the parts affected made a smarting sensation while drawing the humor out which made it seem worse for a few days, but in the short space of three weeks, by making a continued application according to directions, I am entirely free from all sores, it having effected a real cure, and I would most cordially recommend it to the afflicted, as being a safe and speedy medicine. Lord Clarendon made an able speech in reply, being reference chiefly to the position of the Plenipotentiaries He quoted Mr Marcy's letter on the subject, calling it moderate and dignified. He defended the course of the British Plenipotentiaries in giving up a privilege that was impossible to maintain

Lord Derby in a strong speech denounced the abandonment of this ancient privilege, as not only illuminating and derogatory, but dangerous to the interests of England. It was favorable to France, which proposed it, but fatal to England that assented.

After further debate, the motion was lost by a majority of 54.

Lord John Russell gave notice that od Monday he should ask Lord Palmerston a question with a view of ascertaining whether it was the intention of government to interfere in the war between Nicaragua and Costa Rica

Palmerston incidentally stated that the question of the Danish Sound dues is still unsettled, but remains under consideration between Great Britain and Denmark

The Globe contains a Board of Trade notice stating that the Danish consuls in Russian ports have been instructed to afford the necessary commercial facilities to British subjects until British consuls can be sent to Russia.—Also announcing that Carthagena will be considered a free port from the 1st of September

The British press, especially the Times, continues to keep alive excitement on the Italian question

Lord Lyndhurst has withdrawn his motion in the House of Lords, lest it might prejudice negotiations now going on with Italian courts.

The Times thinks Central American affairs will compel a combination of Great Britain and the United States for their adjustment. It also says that the statement of Mr Buchanan that there is nothing to arbitrate is untenable, and suggests the Emperor of Russia as arbitrator for the U S

The trial of Palmer for poisoning his sporting friend Cook, continues; def. nce closed

The case turns mainly on medical testimony whether or not the symptoms of death accord with the symptoms of poison by strychnine.—The most eminent physicians of Great Britain have given evidence which seems equally balanced for and against the prisoner The case excites extraordinary interest It is valuable as making people understand that vegetable poisons are readily detected long after death.

France.

Baron Hubner has presented credentials as Minister from Austria. No Minister yet appointed from Russia. Count Orloff performs the duties.

The Emperor has been giving a review and ball to Princes Maximilian of Austria and Oscar of Sweden

The baptism of the Imperial Prince will take place about the middle of June, and the legislative session will be extended to witness the event.

M Thierry, historian of the Norman Conquest, died at Paris, May 22d.

Spain.

The democrats had brought forward a vote of censure on government, respecting recent troubles at Valencia, but it was negatived by a large majority

Italy.

Nothing new on the Italian question.

Prussia.

A postal convention has been signed between Prussia and the U. S.

Herr Von Rochow is sentenced to five years imprisonment in a fortress, for his recent fatal duel with the Minister of Police, Hinkeldy.

Denmark

The protocol of the Danish proposition to which Russia, Sweden and the Duchy of Oldenburg have given their adhesion, is published—dated Copenhagen, May 9th. Its substance is that Denmark will renounce the Sound and Belt Dues for 35,000,000 rix dollars. All maritime powers must consent—Denmark reserving the right to treat separately with the powers not represented at the present negotiations The compensation named powers dues both on shipping and cargo. Denmark demands security for the money and apportions the sum as follows: Denmark herself to pay 1,250 000 rix dollars, Austria 29,000, Belgium 400 000, Spain 1 000 000, France 1 250,000, Great Britain 10 000,000, Norway 667 000, Oldenburg 28 000, Netherlands 1,500,000, Prussia 4 500,000 Russia 9,750 000; Sweden 1 500,000; total 31 500 000—leaving 3,500,000 for powers not above named Further, as there exists a present difference between Denmark and Great Britain that may delay a settlement, Russia agrees to keep open her offer on condition of the other powers doing the same.

Russia.

Navigation was open to St. Petersburg May 18th.

Commercial advices do not as yet describe any material variation in the course of trade. The rate of exchange at St. Petersburg is steady

The prohibition of gold continued, but was expected soon to be removed.

The Empress Dowager of Russia arrived on a visit to her brother the King of Prussia.

The Czar has gone to Warsaw

The first English steamer bound to Connecticut, called the Tyne, has been lost with all her cargo, off the Island of Oesil, in the Gulf of Finland.

The East.

The evacuation of the Crimea by the French proceeds rapidly.

Letters to May 10th state that the Russians had hung several Tartars for assisting the allies; some had been sent into exile, and others condemned to work on the roads for life.

The scurvy had appeared in the English regiments, and could not be accounted for.

It was still a question what could be done with the horses.

A banquet had been given to Sir Colin Campbell.

Peace had been proclaimed at Tiflis.

The capture of the Circassian village of Sutcheh and six thousand cattle by the Russians is confirmed.

Letters from Corfou report the Ionian Islands quiet. There is a flourishing crop of Olives.

The Niagara sailed for Boston at 6.30 P. M.

Liverpool Market.

The Broker's Circular of the 23d reports flour a trifle lower, with little speculative demand. The principal houses quote Baltimore and Philadelphia at 35s a 36s; good Ohio 36s a 37s. Western canal 30s a 33s 6d Wheat in fair request for the time, and prices are a trifle lower with a decline on the low grades of 2d Western red wheat 9s Southern red 10s a 11s Corn firm, white 29s a 30s, yellow 29s 6d a 29s, mixed 28s a 28s 6d.—Beef dull and prices a trifle easier, with a slight decline on ordinary qualities. ### From Kansas.

St. Louis, 4th.

A letter from Topeka of May 28, to the Democrat, says 46 dragoons are stationed at Tippeka, and 130 at Lawrence.

It is reported that a party of Coltsford's men, encamped near Osawatomie, had committed many depredations upon the property of the squatters, who, becoming enraged, made an attack on the camp, killed two men, and drove the remainder away The Missouri pro-slavery men in that vicinity, identified with the troubles in Kansas, had been waited upon by a committee, and ordered to pack up and move to Missouri instanter. Many families have complied with the demand, and the greatest excitement prevails in that part of Kansas. Gov Shannon has sent a detachment of troops there to preserve order.

The Investigating Committee adjourned from Leavenworth to Westport, on the 21st. They will leave for Washington on the 10th inst.

A letter to the Republican, dated Baptiste Paul, 30th May, says that 33 persons implicated in the murder of the pro slavery men in Osawattome, have been arrested Reports say that the murderers are fortified in a cave on the Marais des Coygnes, and are securing reinforcements from Lawrence and elsewhere. The leader of the band is named Brown. Two of his sons are under arrest, one of whom (Alpha Beauty) One hundred of the Kansas militia and fifteen of the U. States dragoons are assembled to catch the murderers.

[Pro-slavery account. If any of the ruffians are killed, the Federal authorities take prompt measures, with U S troops, to arrest the murderers We hear of no such movements against the ruffians who have been murdering the Free States men and burning and plundering their houses for months past]

Governor Price of Missouri has ordered an election to be held on the first Monday of August, to fill the vacancy occasioned in Congress by the death of Hon John G Miller

Gov. Metcalf's Annual Message.

CONCORD, N H 5th

Gov Metcalf was qualified this afternoon and sent his annual message to the Legislature.—About one third of the message is devoted to National affairs, principally the Slavery question, and denounces the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—the Kansas outrages, and the assault on Senator Sumner He attributes uniform success of slave power to their perfect unanimity on that subject and constant threats of withdrawal from the Union and to the compactness of their party ties He closes as follows

"All the talk, all the threats, all the movements designed or tending to a dissolution, are the political stock in trade of Southern politicians, with here and there a partner at the North"

Cincinnati National Democratic Convention.

CINCINNATI, June 3, P. M.

The Committee on Credentials were occupied the whole day in arguments of counsel in the New York delegation dispute, at the close of which the Chairman proposed that both sets of delegates be rejected, unless, waiving minor differences, they themselves selected 35 delegates from each side to represent them in Convention.

A discussion ensued, in the course of which Mr Stevenson of New York, objected to the Hunkers, because they had shamefully abandoned Franklin Pierce, and made their address the basis of abuse of the most sacredly Constitutional administration ever known

Mr Wiggin, of Maine, denounced the Softs as Abolitionists, and contended that their support of the present administration was no proof that they were not Abolitionists, for President Pierce himself had been as favorable to the Abolitionists in some of his acts, as he had been to the South in others.

Mr George, of New Hampshire, said he would not stand by and hear the glorious and God-like administration of Franklin Pierce abused in that Committee.

Mr Wiggin retorted that he was not to be brow-beaten, but would stand up in the Convention ready to denounce the President, and prove that to his disappointments at the North he had endeavored to nourish Abolitionism.

Mr Telford of Indiana was willing to set in the Hards for he looked upon the Softs as rotten Abolitionists at heart

Further angry discussion ensued, pending which the Committee adjourned till to-morrow, without taking the vote

CINCINNATI, June 4

The Committee on Resolutions reported, with a motion to adopt the resolutions without debate, which caused much excitement.

Virginia opposed the resolution touching foreign affairs, and demanded a vote by States

That part of the platform relating to home affairs was finally adopted, and that relating to foreign matters laid over for consideration. Recess till 3 o'clock.

Important from Kansas.

CHICAGO, June 3.

Our dates from Lawrence are to 25th of May. The correspondent of the Tribune sends a list of the property destroyed at Lawrence on the 24th ult. amounting to $130,000

Gov. Shannon issued an order calling out the troops at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 22d

A gentleman just arrived, reports that the difficulty mentioned as occurring at Pardee at Ohio Creek took place at Osawatomie. The quarrel arose from depredations committed by the pro-slavery men on the cattle of the Free State men on the 26th

Some pro slavery men seized a Free State man and proceeded to hang him, when his wife fled and aroused his neighbors, who came to his rescue. A fight ensued, and five pro-slavery men and two Free State men were killed

A force of 80 men were organized at Westport, Mo, on the 27th ult, and proceeded to Osawattomie.

The correspondent of the New York Tribune writes

"Leavenworth, 24th—The steamer Polar Star has just arrived, bringing Gov Robinson, under charge of a Sheriff's posse. I have just been with him. He looks well, and is perfectly composed. They are taking him to Lecompton. He was taken up from Lexington through the territory, but when he arrived at Franklin, the Governor ordered that he be taken back, as he could not pass Lawrence in safety He was then taken back among the borderers again, through Westport and Kansas City, and up the Missouri river, past Parkville, &c

Last night there was a current rumor that the Commission was attacked, but so far there had been nothing of the kind

I have no definite information since I wrote last. There was a rumor that another still more brutal attack had been made upon the Commission just before the U. S. troops arrived

The Free State people would rise and drive the marauding mob out of the territory, but the troops are now ranged in force along the Kaw, and ready to prevent anything of the kind"

Through Tickets inclusive transit of the Isthmus, via Panama, N. G.

☞ By order of the Postmaster General the United States Mail Steamers will hereafter be despatched from New York direct to Aspinwall, on the 5th and 20th of each month.

Passengers are landed at the Railroad Depot, Aspinwall and conveyed across to the Pacific Steamers without any extra expense. This is the only line giving entire through Tickets, including meals on the Isthmus.

Transit made in four hours, entirely by daylight, thus avoiding the great exposure by night in open boats to fever and ague and the numerous dangers of the lake and river navigation over rocks and shoals.

Arrangements have now been completed so that the regular U S Pacific Mail Steamer will leave Panama for San Francisco immediately on arrival of the Atlantic Mails and passengers, thus securing passengers by the Mail Line a sure and short passage without any detention on the Isthmus.

☞ Tickets must be examined by one of the Company's Agents before they will be recognized by the Agent at Panama, and Tickets thus signed can be obtained of the only authorized Agent for the Atlantic and Pacific Mail Steamship Companies, in this city C L BARTLETT, Agent,
